Hunt Military Communities Takes Home Numerous Customer Satisfaction Awards

El Paso, TX, January 23, 2017 – Hunt Military Communities, the nation’s largest privatized military housing developer, is pleased to announce that it received both the Platinum A List and A list awards for customer service excellence. The nationally recognized awards are based on the results of a comprehensive resident satisfaction survey managed by nationally recognized benchmarking firm CEL & Associates, Inc.

“Hunt Military Communities is honored to have received these prestigious awards for more than 35 neighborhoods throughout our military communities,” stated John Ehle, Hunt Military Communities’ President. “These awards demonstrate that we are listening to our residents and making the changes they’ve asked for to continue offering them the best living experience possible.”

The annual survey allows residents to score their neighborhood on factors such as maintenance, communication, leasing procedures and many additional items. It also allows residents the opportunity to suggest improvements, where needed.

The survey is conducted at all privatized military housing developments throughout the country. Hunt received CEL A-list awards at the following properties:

- USAF Academy
- Arnold AFB
- Charleston Naval Base
- Crane Naval Base
- Dover AFB
- Dyess AFB
- Little Rock AFB
- Fort Lee
- Goodfellow AFB
- Hanscom AFB
- Kirtland AFB
- Laughlin AFB
- Millington Naval Base
- Navy Northwest
- Nellis AFB
- Patrick AFB
- Redstone
- Shaw AFB

Each year CEL & Associates, Inc. compiles customer satisfaction survey data from thousands of properties. CEL & Associates, Inc.’s A List and A List Platinum Awards for Customer Service Excellence are awarded to those companies/properties that truly provide a superior level of service. Since 1998, this award has become the National Standard for Service.
