

SHAW INSIGHTS NEWS & STORIES

Our President's Message

At Hunt Military Communities, we actively foster a culture of service and are proud that more than 50% of our employees are military-affiliated. Hunt offers a dynamic, challenging workplace for more than 890 employees, and we are continuing to grow our depth, level of service, and expertise throughout our housing communities.

We are currently seeking to fill more than 180 positions throughout our communities. Job titles include Leasing Director, Executive Assistant, Maintenance Director, Maintenance Technician and Porter, as well as newly added positions including 15 new Quality Assurance/Quality Control Specialists, and two Portfolio Support Directors. Roles are based on need per location. As a family-owned company, we understand that our employees are our most valuable asset. We're proud of our reputation for strong human capital and remain dedicated to providing our employees with essential tools to foster both personal and professional growth. If you or a family member is interested in working for Hunt, please visit www.huntmilitarycommunities.com and click on the careers tab.

It is so Hard to Say Good Bye

As much as we hate to see you go, we do hope you enjoyed your stay with us. When the time comes, please remember to stop by the Shaw Family Housing Management Office to complete the Notice of Intent to Vacate Paperwork. A 30-day notice is required, unless such notification cannot be made at no fault of the resident (i.e. short notice assignment). Thank you for your cooperation.
